

Annual Conference

2nd March 2024

Scottish Teachers for Enhancing Practice:

Stirling Court Hotel, 9.15am start

Keynote speakers:

Professor Walter Humes

Honorary Professor, University of Stirling

Dr Khadija Mohammed

Associate Dean, University of the West of Scotland

Opening remarks: Jenny Gilruth, Cabinet Secretary for Education and Skills

Conference chair: David Cameron

Plus topical workshops from:

SQA, Education Scotland, Scottish Book Trust, Glasgow City Parents Group, Hive of Wellbeing...and more!

Registration fee £50

This includes breakfast from 8.15am (bacon/egg roll) and three course lunch!
Vegan option is also available

One free probationer place to each local authority (place allocated by STEP)

Book early to guarantee your place!

<http://www.steachersep.org.uk/register>

Email: conference@teachersep.org.uk

STEP is a Registered Scottish Charity - SC041390

At a Glance

Session A (Morning) 10.25 - 11.15	Session B (Morning) 11.20 -12.10	Session C (Afternoon) 2.05 – 2.55
A1 – Nuzhat Uthmani Education, Decoloniality & Social Justice	B1 –Colin McGill Improving learning & teaching using findings form the science of learning	C1 – Sinead Rhodes Supporting neurodivergent children and young people using EPIC
A2 – Craig Lowther The Benefits of a Maths Mastery Approach to Numeracy	B2 – Leanne McGuire Glasgow City Parents Group Parental Partnerships: Bridging Gaps through Clear Communication	C2 – Livvi Brooks The importance of menstrual cycle awareness in school
A3 – Pauline Bird and Signe Rudoviča Expanding Reading Repertoires through Book Tasting	B3 – Alison Murray Social Justice through Physical Literacy	C3 – Karen Watson Let's Talk About Inclusive Communication
A4 – Donna Stewart & Liz McGrath SQA – Educator Charter	B4 – Ollie Bray Education in the era of AI: Opportunities, Challenges and Puzzles	C4 – Claire Lavelle Title - TBC
A5 – Catherine Thomas and Anne Doyle Facilitating Emotional Competence in Preschool Children	B5 – Claire Murray The Emotion Works Primary School Award: Working in Partnership Towards Shared Goals in Learning & Wellbeing	C5 – Gemma Clark Ways to Reduce Workload Using AI

More details on: https://steachersep.org.uk/docs/2024/keynotes_workshops_v2.pdf

Register on: <https://steachersep.org.uk/register>